WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

In order to better serve you while you go through the Immigration Exam process, we would like for you to read the following disclaimer:

Your documentation will be sent by Federal Express to the place designated by the letter you receive from Australia or to the designated office that is determined per Canadian regulations. You may call our office for the tracking number of your package TEN WORKING DAYS AFTER YOUR APPOINTMENT. You may track your package on www.fedex.com.

Once the documentation leaves our office, we are no longer responsible for said documentation. If there is a problem at that point, you must resolve the issue with the Australian or Canadian Embassy. Should the Embassy need another copy of your documentation, they must call us directly.

Thank you.
